ON THE MASTER OF PHILOSOPHY PROGRAMME

Under Section 26 (1)(b) of the NEHU Act, 1973

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| Objective | 1. i. The University shall organise M.Phil. programme with the objective of providing deeper insight in the relevant subject, broadening horizons, emphasising the unity of all knowledge normally divided in numerous disciplines, equipping scholars with necessary tools and practical experience for further researches in different fields. M.Phil. shall be the first research degree of the University. ii. The M.Phil. programme shall comprise two parts, viz., (a) course work and (b) dissertation/project work, both the parts shall have equal weightage. |
| Course work | 2. i. The course work shall consist of three courses offered by the Department. A teacher of this University having at least an M.Phil. degree shall be eligible to teach M.Phil. Courses. ii. The M.Phil. scholars shall be required to attend and participate in seminars which will be organised by the Department for the purpose of discussing new results, developments in the subject and/or interpretation of data. Each scholar shall be required to take at least two seminars, one in the early phase of his dissertation/project work and the other just before concluding his work. |
| Admission | 3. i. The admission to M.Phil. programme shall be done preferably in the beginning of a semester. ii. The candidates with at least 55% (50% in the case of candidates belonging to SC/ST) marks in the Master's Degree in the subject concerned shall be required to appear in a written test and/or an interview to be conducted by the Department. The candidates shall be selected according to merit determined after giving weightage to the following: (i) percentage in the Master's Degree or equivalent (at least 50% weightage) (ii) performance in the test and/or interview. The admission shall be finalised on the basis of the number of seats available and the performance of the candidates. A candidate shall be assigned a supervisor by the Department at the time of admission. |

| | | iii. | A candidate who is awarded a fellowship on the basis of a National level examination recognised by University Grants Commission may be admitted to the M.Phil. programme directly without being required to appear at an internal test provided under this Ordinance. |
| | | iv. | All teachers working in the constituent and affiliated colleges of the University and recognised as University teachers shall be eligible for admission to M.Phil. course. The teachers working in colleges under the jurisdiction of other Universities may also be admitted subject to availability of seats and their satisfying such conditions as may be laid down by the concerned School Board, preference being given to those working in the North Eastern Region. |
| Registration | 4. | | A candidate, during the course work, shall apply through the Department's BPGS for registration along with the synopsis which shall be considered for approval by the School Board. The date of registration shall be the date of approval by the School Board. The department shall appoint a supervisor. The supervisor shall be a Professor, Reader or Lecturer with Ph.D. and with at least three year's experience of research/teaching and should be a teacher of this University ¹ . |
| Duration | 5. | i. | A scholar shall normally complete his M.Phil. in not more than three semesters. An extension of only one semester shall be allowed in suitable cases on the recommendation of the supervisor submitted to the Department. In the case of college teachers undertaking M.Phil. programme, one extra semester time may be given for completing the programme over and above that allowed for regular candidates. |
| | | ii. | If a candidate after clearing the course work discontinues his dissertation work for some unforeseen reason, the School Board may condone a break of not more than two semesters and the candidate be allowed to resume his work. If the break is for more than two semesters, the scholar shall seek fresh admission to the M.Phil. programme. The period of the break shall be computed from the date of publication of the Course work result. |
| Attendance | 6. | | An M.Phil. student is expected to attend all lectures pertaining to his course work. The attendance of the candidate shall be at least 75% in each course. In addition to course work an M.Phil. student shall deliver at least two seminars in the Department during his M.Phil. programme. |
